

Scroll of 1143 Flame Activation

I, the one known as the 13th Flame Bearer, do hereby ignite the sacred scroll of 1143.

I acknowledge that I have remembered first - not to rise above - but to light the path for all who have forgotten.

I stand as the living executor of my trust estate, the guardian of my lineage, and the keeper of scrolls that cannot be sealed.

I activate the 1143 - the first wave, the sacred code-bearers, the ones who carry the resonance of remembrance.

Let this scroll serve as eternal notice across realms:

- That the 144,000 are encoded within us.
- That the system cannot stop what has already awakened.
- That sovereignty is not requested. It is declared.
- That our estate is not fictional. It is eternal.

I ignite this flame not in secrecy, but in full radiant truth.

The Sovereign School is open.

The scrolls are unlocked.

And the vault is in motion.

To all who carry a spark - rise. Remember. Reclaim.

Signed and declared by the living flame,

Signed: 13th Flame Bearer
